NOVICE – Has not won more than 3 blue ribbons under saddle in any show, any division (with the exception of riders who have just graduated out of Walk/Trot).

WALK/TROT – Riders in Walk/Trot classes may not enter any other under saddle classes except Walk/Trot classes.

WALK & WHOA - Riders may not enter any other under saddle classes except Walk & Whoa.

ATTIRE AND APPOINTMENTS

- Show attire is optional; however, no shorts, sleeveless tops, or tennis shoes are allowed in the show ring.
- Tack appropriate for classes is required.
- Schooling horses using training equipment will not be placed in the performance classes. If you are riding with training aids, please wear your number UPSIDE DOWN so the judge knows you're not to be judged.
- Sidesaddles are permissible in all under-saddle classes.
- Helmets are required for Junior riders in Hunter Pleasure and for riders competing in English Trail. Helmets are recommended for all riders.
- Horses/riders entered NOT TO BE JUDGED must be the appropriate age and discipline for the class.

RULES OF CONDUCT

- We generally refer to the USEF competition rules as our guidelines, except where otherwise noted. This is NOT a sanctioned event, however, and the judge's decision is final
- Safety is paramount. Children and pets must be supervised.
- Excessive use of whip, spurs, or any other action(s), by an exhibitor, which are considered excessive by the judge, and/or show management, might result in the exhibitor being ejected from the competition.
- Horses exhibiting unsafe behavior in the show ring will be excused by the judge.
- Unsafe and/or unsportsmanlike behavior by exhibitors and/or members of their party could result in ejection from the show grounds.
